Hope for the Discouraged and Depressed, Part 8 - Romans 8:29 - May 6th, 2012

- Todays teaching will be part eight of a series titled; "Hope for the Discouraged and Depressed."
- On the heels of taking an in depth look at one of the most famous verses in the Bible we now come to the next verse to fill in some of the blanks.
- By that I mean, verse 29 has the propensity to give us a much better understanding of the promise we are given, as believers, in Romans 8:28.
- Perhaps a better way to say it is that God has let us in on a little secret of sorts, in that He tells us why it is that He's chosen to do what He does.
- Vs. 29 gives us the "why" behind the "what" of God working all things for good for those who love Him and are called according to His purpose.
- In a word, He's making us more Christ like, and what comes packaged with that is this process of conforming us, making us, and shaping us.
- For the benefit of those who weren't with us last week for our study of verse 28, we looked at the life of Joseph as a wonderful example of v. 28.
- If there were ever a man through whom we can see God working all for good it would have to be Joseph, who becomes for us a type of Christ.
- Lest I get ahead of myself, let me hasten to say, that not only is Joseph a personification of verse 28, he is also a personification of verse 29.
- What we're about to see in a moment is how that Joseph, in being conformed into the image of Christ, is a picture of Christ pointing us to Christ.
- Actually, this was God's purpose for him all along, and if the truth be known, this is God's purpose for us as well, in and through our difficulties.
- It was in and through betrayal, rejection, temptation, and the false accusation against Joseph that would serve as a catalyst to being conformed.
- By the way, it is understandable for some to think, at first glance, God was being really cruel to Joseph by allowing all of this to happen to him.
- However, it's important to know were Joseph to have had this faulty mindset he would have never made it through all that had happened to him.
- Joseph knew God wasn't being cruel to him, rather, he knew that God was going work good for him, and through him, in what was done to him.

"Satan's aim is to make a man believe that God is cruel and that things are all wrong; but when a man strikes deepest in agony and turns deliberately to the God manifested in Jesus Christ, he will find Him to be the answer to all his problems."

Oswald Chambers, "Baffled to Fight Better," p. 30

- We do err when we're quick too dismiss the problems and difficulties we encounter in life, as these are the instruments God chooses and uses.
- The fact of the matter is, we are the clay, and He is the potter, and as such, God is shaping us as His workmanship, or work of art, if you prefer.
- Our problem is that we don't like the process, we just want the end product, and in so doing, we as merely clay fight the potter who's making us.

Isaiah 29:16 NKJV Surely you have things turned around! Shall the potter be esteemed as the clay; For shall the thing made say of him who made it, "He did not make me"? Or shall the thing formed say of him who formed it, "He has no understanding"?

Romans 9:20-21 NIV But who are you, O man, to talk back to God? "Shall what is formed say to him who formed it, 'Why did you make me like this?" (21) Does not the potter have the right to make out of the same lump of clay some pottery for noble purposes and some for common use?

Jeremiah 18:1-6 NIV This is the word that came to Jeremiah from the LORD: (2) "Go down to the potter's house, and there I will give you my message." (3) So I went down to the potter's house, and I saw him working at the wheel. (4) But the pot he was shaping from the clay was marred in his hands; so the potter formed it into another pot, shaping it as seemed best to him. (5) Then the word of the LORD came to me: (6) "O house of Israel, can I not do with you as this potter does?" declares the LORD. "Like clay in the hand of the potter, so are you in my hand, O house of Israel.

- I suppose in all fairness to us as the clay, who really likes being spun around on a potter's wheel, or worse yet, being placed in the oven, or kiln. Whether we like it or not, that's the only way, He Who begun a good work in us can complete, or perfect it. We are purified by those fiery trials.
- Isaiah 48:10 KJV Behold, I have refined thee, but not with silver; I have chosen thee in the furnace of affliction.

1 Peter 1:6-7 NIV In this you greatly rejoice, though now for a little while you may have had to suffer grief in all kinds of trials. (7) These have come so that your faith—of greater worth than gold, which perishes even though refined by fire—may be proved genuine and may result in praise, glory and honor when Jesus Christ is revealed.

James 1:2-4 NIV Consider it pure joy, my brothers, whenever you face trials of many kinds, (3) because you know that the testing of your faith develops perseverance. (4) Perseverance must finish its work so that you may be mature and complete, not lacking anything.

- The bottom line is that God will work all things together for good for us, but it comes vis-à-vis His conforming us, so as to mature and perfect us.
- This is what Paul is saying in Romans 8:28-29, and it's what Joseph was saying in Genesis 50:20 about God taking bad, and making good.
- It's on this runway that I wish to bring today's sermon in for a landing. To do that I'd like to share with you how Joseph is a type of Jesus Christ.
